

WASHINGTON HELD UP AS AN EXAMPLE

Michael E. Foley of Indianapolis Addresses Audience at Castle Theatre Sunday Afternoon

K. OF C. OBSERV Indiana State Library

Day to Forget What Party or Church we Belong to, but Remember Only We Are Americans

George Washington as soldier, constitution-maker and president of the United States was held up as an example for every American boy and girl to follow by Michael E. Foley, an Indianapolis attorney, in an address at a Washington birthday celebration held by the Rushville council of the Knights of Columbus Sunday afternoon at the Castle theatre.

The Rose City quartet of New-castle, which seemed to have an inexhaustible supply of songs, provided most of the entertainment on the program. There was also two readings by Mrs. Earl Osborne and a piano solo, consisting of a medley of patriotic numbers, played by Mrs. Pat Gannon. The program closed with the singing of "America" by the audience.

Because of Washington's influence, Mr. Foley said, this is a land of hope for every boy and girl who has an aim in life.

"On this day," he declared, "we forget what political party we belong to and what Christian church we belong to. We remember only that we are Americans."

"George Washington will live in the hearts of the liberty-loving people of the world so long as justice reigns. He not only founded the republic, but he instituted constitutional government and served as president for eight years during the most trying time in American history."

Washington, the speaker pointed out, is an outstanding figure in American life so far as his record as a soldier is concerned. No man has ever rendered such a distinguished service in American history, he said, and recalled that Washington was not trained for war, but had given his life to the development of business enterprises in Virginia.

The speaker declared that Washington takes rank in leadership with the great military leaders of history and compared his experience and that of his soldiers with the experience of the trained military leaders and soldiers of Europe.

"He accomplished what he did," continued Mr. Foley, "because of the influence and help of almighty God. I have always believed that providence guided this country. God was with Washington just as he was with Lincoln and McKinley, and the same God and the same spirit."

FOUR COMPLAINTS ARE FILED IN COURT TODAY

Suits Include Two on Accounts, One On Note and the Other For $2,500 Damages

POSSESSION SUIT NOT ENDED

Four complaints have been filed in the circuit court, two being on accounts, one for damages and another action on a note.

In the case of Clyde Merritt a suit for possession of a child, the evidence was not concluded Saturday by special Judge Fern Hines of Noblesville, and will be continued until a later date.

Among the new actions filed, is a complaint by the Gordon Hollow Blase Gate Company against Owen L. Carr, the demand being for $100 on an account. The same defendant also is sued by the Bump Confectionary Company in which $75 is demanded on an account.

Charlotte E. Barlow, administratrix of the estate of Elinor Barlow is plaintiff in an action seeking damages, and the defendants are Harry E. and Myrtle Snauling, with the demand for $2,500.

Grover F. White and Benjamin Foreman are plaintiffs in an action against Leslie B. Brown, the demand being for $750 judgment on a note.

UNLAWFUL FISHING IS CHARGED

Four Men Cited to Appear in Police Court Tonight

Four arrests were made Saturday night by police officers, in which charges of unlawful fishing were placed against them in police court, and they will be arraigned tonight before Mayor Thomas. The men arrested are: Oliver Innis, Donald Newman, Elmer Hendricks and Dada Pea. Chief of police Blackburn, and Patrolmen Smith and Everman made the arrests and stated that the men were using a spot light and trapping the fish. About 20 pounds of fish had been caught, when the officers arrested them, according to the chief of police. The men were allowed to go, and were told to report tonight in police station.

W. F. EASLEY SELLS PRINCESS THEATER

Pioneer Motion Picture Man of Rushville Announces Sale to Casady and Smith

POSSESSION NEXT MONDAY

New Owners Will Control all Three Play Houses in the City—Easley Here 14 Years

Walter F. Easley, the pioneer in the motion picture show business of this city, today announced the sale of the Princess theatre to Casady and Smith, present operators of the Mystic and Castle theatres.

The deal between the parties was begun last week and closed this morning. The change in the business will be made next Monday, March 1.

Mr. Easley came to Rushville fourteen years ago, when the motion picture business was in its infancy. He came from Elwood, Ind., and was employed as an operator at the Portola theatre, managed by Schmidt brothers. He later acquired the ownership of the theatre, which is now the Mystic theatre, and he called this the Princess theatre.

He made a big success in the operation of this theatre, and when the Masonic Temple was rebuilt after the fire, he took up enlarged quarters and moved the Princess theatre into its present location.

Mr. Easley also acquired the management of the K. of P. opera house in Greensburg, several months ago, and has been operating that theatre very successfully. In closing the deal here, Mr. Easley will probably devote his entire attention to his interests in that city, although he has not made any definite decision concerning the future.

Casady and Smith, owners of the Mystic and Castle, and the purchasers of the Princess, came to Rushville several months ago, and have built up an excellent patronage at their two play houses.

They have not made any definite announcement concerning the future operation of the three theatres, but will more than likely continue the present policies maintained and an effort to give motion picture people the very best, will be made.

NIGHT CLASSES WILL ORGANIZE

These Interested in Courses Urged to Attend Meeting

The evening classes which are being organized in commercial work and home economics will meet for organization at the Graham high school building at 7 o'clock Tuesday evening. This meeting will not compel any person to enter the classes but it is desired that every one interested in the organization of evening classes will be present.

The course will consist of classes in typewriting, dress making and millinery. Classes will be conducted twice a week and meeting nights that will accommodate the greatest number of students will be selected.

AMERICAN LEGION MEETING

The American legion meeting, usually held on Tuesday night, will be carried over this week until Thursday night, and the members are urged to remember the change and attend Thursday.

ANOTHER SECRET HOBBY HAS BEEN UNCOVERED

PAYROLL BANDITS AWAIT SENTENCES

Hold up in Connersville Last December is Solved by Confessions of Men Arrested

OFFICER PLEADS INNOCENCE

Confession States That Machine Was Stolen in Rushville—$6,700 Was Divided

Connersville, Ind., Feb. 23—Four men, arrested Saturday on charges of highway robbery in connection with the theft of the $6,700 payroll of the Indiana Lamp Company, December 13, 1924, pleaded guilty to the charge this morning in the circuit court before Judge Himelick, and their sentence will be passed Wednesday.

The fifth member of the alleged bandit gang, Fred Swift, a patrolman, pleaded not guilty, and will be tried Wednesday, which caused the postponement of the sentence on the other four until after his trial.

The men in jail, and who pleaded guilty to the charge of Carl Hackleman, age 37, local jeweler; George Allin 24, Cyril Johnson age 19 and Howard Thomas, age 32. Allin and Johnson live south of Connersville in Orange township. Thomas is an automobile salesman and was arrested in Decatur, Illinois and returned to Connersville.

Full confessions were made after the arrests. The five men are charged with planning the robbery, and divided the money equally, according to the confessions.

Officials asserted today that the five men have been under suspicion since the time of the holdup. Investigations have been conducted by three different sets of detectives.

Patrolman Swift was serving as the payroll guard at the time of the holdup. C. R. Jontz, paymaster, was driving the car.

According to the confessions, as reported by the officers, the holdup was planned in detail at the Thomas home. Thomas, Johnson and Allin talked the matter over Thursday night before the robbery it is alleged. Johnson and Allin went to Rushville and stole an automobile for use in the robbery. Thomas, according to the confessions, made arrangements with Swift to do some fake shooting.

MRS. MOORE IMPROVES

Mrs. James Moore, who underwent an operation at the Memorial Hospital in Connersville last week, is improving nicely.

WALTER TRIBBEY EXPIRES

Walter Tribbey, age 49 years, a resident of near Arlington, died Sunday at the Robert Long hospital in Indianapolis, where he had been taking treatment. The body will be brought to the Christian church in Arlington for services Tuesday morning at ten o'clock and burial will be made in the Arlington cemetery.

FORMER LOCAL WOMAN DIES AT GREENSBURG

Mrs. Mary C. Collier, Invalid For Eight Years, Expires at Home of Her Daughter

SERVICES HERE TUESDAY

Mrs. Mary C. Collier, formerly of this city, expired at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Will Downey in Greensburg, about six o'clock Saturday evening.

Mrs. Collier's death was caused from a protracted illness, having been an invalid for about eight years. She was 67 years of age, and is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Downey, at whose home she died and Mrs. Will O'Neil of Indianapolis, formerly of this city, and a son Harry Collier of Indianapolis and a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Omer Collier. Seventeen grand children and one sister, Mrs. Charlotte Kirkpatrick of Falmouth, and a brother, Joel Carson of Rushville, are among the survivors.

The funeral services will be held Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the St. Mary's Catholic church in this city, in charge of the Rev. Francis Schaub, and burial will be made in Calvary cemetery.

PENNANT AWARDED TO COUNTY

Once More Honored Because of Christmas Seal Sale

On account of the earnest work of the Psi Iota Xi sorority and township workers the Rush county Tuberculosis Association, has again been awarded the pennant by the state association at their annual meeting held in Indianapolis last Friday.

Rushville was among one of the counties in its class, making the best showing in the Christmas seal sale last year. This is the fourth year Rush county has received the pennant and each year the sorority has planned and conducted the campaign, which has shown an annual increase in sales.

MINE DISASTER WILL BE PROBED

Sullivan County Grand Jury Will Conven to See if Criminal Neglect Was Responsible

BURYING OF DEAD BEGUN

State Legislature Today Votes $10,000 For Relief, Without Dissenting Vote

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 23—Under suspension of the rules the state legislature today rushed through a bill appropriating $10,000 for the relief of relatives of the fifty one miners killed in the explosion at Sullivan, Friday.

The bill passed both houses without a dissenting vote. Both house and senate adopted resolutions of sympathy for the families of the blast victims.

The bill provides that $10,000 shall be spent under supervision of Governor Jackson.

Sullivan, Ind., Feb. 23—Demand that the cause of the disaster in the City Mine Friday be definitely determined was made by the Sullivan county grand jury today in a report filed with Norral Harris, county prosecutor.

The report requested Harris to reconvene the grand jury to see if criminal negligence was found to be responsible for the blast and recommended that the information obtained in the investigation be used to amend the state mining laws to prevent a repetition of such catastrophe.

While the world at large today probably is beginning to forget last Friday's disaster at the City mine, the town and county of Sullivan, have just awakened to a full realization of the extent of their disaster. The heart-breaking climax came as ambulances bore the last of the 51 dead, victims of the mine horror from morgues to the homes of their families preparatory to the funerals.

First of the funerals were held yesterday were those of Cecil Cary and his uncle, Dave Smith. Each family has arranged to bury its dead when and where it chooses.

OVER RADIO TONIGHT

The Wabash College glee club will give a concert this afternoon at 5 o'clock from the LaSalle hotel station in Chicago, listed as WMAQ. Max VanOsdol, first tenor with the club, is the son of Dr. and Mrs. D. D. VanOsdol of this city.

ROTARIANS GO TO SOUTH BEND

Seven Leave This Morning for Annual State Conference

Seven members of the Rushville Rotary club left this morning for South Bend to attend the annual conference of the twentieth Rotary district, composed of Indiana clubs. They joined the Indianapolis Rotary club delegation and went on a special train leaving Indianapolis this morning at 8:15 o'clock.

The conference will be addressed by leading Rotarians of the state and a number from other parts of the United States. Coach Rockne of Notre Dame will present his famous football team and explain some of the successful plays he used, as one of the entertainment features of the conference.

The local delegation was composed of Hugh E. Manzy, Laurence L. Allen, John A. Tittsworth, Will O. Feulner, George J. Griesser, Donald D. Ball and Roy E. Harrold.

FULL QUOTA OF STOCK REQUIRED

Will be Necessary to Subscribe Total Preferred Issue to Get New Furniture Factory

NOW ABOUT $10,000 SHORT

Type of Construction Decided on Will Make Cost of Building go Above First Estimate

The type of construction decided on for the proposed furniture factory, which I. L. Endres and Robert L. Tompkins of the Rushville Furniture company proposed to erect, makes it impossible to build the building for $75,000, which Rushville citizens obligated themselves to subscribe for preferred stock and it has been decided that the full amount of the issue will have to be pledged before plans for the factory can proceed.

It is now estimated, since the local furniture manufacturers have decided that a one story building is the only kind that will meet their requirements, that they will have to put up money themselves in addition to the $75,000, in order to erect the size and type of plant that they want. This is in addition to the equipment, which will be purchased with money invested by Mr. Tompkins and Mr. Endres, and which will be represented by common stock.

The pledges for preferred stock are about $10,000 short of the goal set at the beginning of the campaign. It will now be necessary to raise the additional $10,000 through the sale of preferred stock in order to acquire the factory.

Mr. Endres and Mr. Tompkins have addressed a letter to Omer Trusler, president of the Boosters club, to this effect. They expressed a desire to have the matter closed by March 1.

Recently a letter was mailed to all those who had subscribed for stock, asking them to make a payment of one-fourth on their pledge at once, with the promise that the new company would be incorporated by February 15.

All of the subscribers, with the exception of fourteen, either paid or made arrangements to make the first payment. Those who did not attend to the matter promptly delayed the incorporation. They have since been seen and all but one who pledged themselves to take some of the stock, have met the requirements.

In the meantime, however, it has developed that a one-story building is the only practical kind to erect and that it will cost more than first contemplated, which accounts for the decision to require a one hundred percent subscription to the $75,000 preferred stock issue before the company is incorporated.

Many seem to have the impression that the factory project is being abandoned.

RED MEN TO MEET

All members of Tanpah Tribe, I. O. R. M. are requested to be present Tuesday night. Amendment to by-laws will be business to be brought up.

FIRST SERMON IN SERIES IS BEGUN

The Rev. E. G. McKibben, United Presbyterian Church, Preaches on "I Am The Door"

STRONG SERMONS ELSEWHERE

"Lost—A Soul" Delivered by Rev. Mr. Hargett and Unsearchable Riches by Rev. Mr. Wilson

Strong and interesting sermons were preached in the churches of Rushville Sunday, with a first of a series being started at the First United Presbyterian church, under the general heading, "Our Lord's Estimate of Himself." The opening topic Sunday evening was, "I am the Door."

At the First Presbyterian church, the Rev. Gibson Wilson preached on the subject, "The Unsearchable Riches of Christ."

At the St. Paul's M. E. church the Rev. Mr. Hargett concluded his sermons on the general theme, "That which is Lost," and in his message Sunday night dwelt upon the subject, "Lost—A Soul."

United Presbyterian

The sermon on Sabbath night at the First United Presbyterian church delivered by the pastor, Rev. E. G. McKibben, was based on John 10:9 "I am the door." This was the first in a series under the general heading "Our Lord's Estimate of Himself." The pastor said in part:

A door served about three main purposes. It excludes. It includes and it protects. Jesus as the door excludes from his Kingdom those who are too stubborn to repent, those who are too wilful to be led; and others too proud to humble themselves. Many a poor soul has gone down to death because it was unwilling to comply with the conditions of entrance through Christ as the door.

As the door He admits into His kingdom the opposite of those He excludes. The repentant and the teachable and the humble are cordially welcomed and graciously received. For all such the door is ajar. "Behold I have set before you an open door." It is accessible. One may enter it any place or at any time. It is plainly labelled so that no one need mistake. Its only rival is the wide gate leading

B. F. CATO ACCEPTS A CALL FROM RUSHVILLE

Marshalltown, Iowa, Minister Will Become Pastor of Main Street Christian Church May 1

WIRES ACCEPTANCE SUNDAY

The Rev. B. F. Cato of Marshalltown, Iowa, has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Main Street Christian church, it was announced at the Sunday morning services of the church, and will assume his duties in Rushville May 1.

The Rev. Cato was invited to become pastor following his address to the Century Bible class of men at a banquet in the basement of the church, and an informal talk to members of the congregation, last Wednesday evening. A telegram from him was received Sunday, morning shortly before the beginning of the services at the church.

The new pastor comes highly recommended as a pastor and preacher. He is a native of Indiana, having been born and reared in the southern part of the state, and has served several churches in Indiana.

The Rev. Mr. Cato is a graduate of the College of Bible at Lexington Kentucky, now Transylvania university, and his first pastorate was a small church in Eastern Indiana. He was called to Thornstown, in Boone county, and later went to New Albany, where he was pastor of the leading Christian church for six years. From New Albany, he went to Little Rock, Arkansas, and then to Marshalltown, which is twice the size of Rushville in population.

The Rev. Mr. Cato has a married son living in New Albany and a daughter of high school age.

into the narrow way. Then this door is for all. "Whosoever may come." And "He that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out."

As the door He protects those who have entered. "By Me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and go out, and find pasture." He protects them from wandering too far. When He puts them forth He goes before them. "His rod and staff comfort them." "He makes to lie down in green pastures. So long as they abide in His love, and obey His voice, and trust in His promises, they are safe."

He protects them from the assaults of enemies and from evil associations and from false teachers. The world is full of false teaching today. Every precious doctrine of revelation is being called in question: The deity of Christ, His virgin birth, His atonement, and His resurrection from the dead. All this is only an effort to discredit Him and so to throw off the restraints of His lordship. Man also is traced to a bestial ancestry that the voice of conscience may be hushed and that as is spoke in the second Psalm "Men may cast away his chords from them." In sharp contrast to such teachings God's word gives man a more glorious origin and a more splendid destiny. "Ye are sons of God through Jesus Christ." "Ye are heirs of God." "Your citizenship is in heaven." "Angels are your fellow servants."

First Presbyterian

"The Unsearchable Riches of Christ" was the topic of the sermon delivered Sunday night at the First Presbyterian church by the Rev. Gibson Wilson. A portion of his discourse is quoted as follows:

Ephesians 3:8 "The unsearchable riches of Christ." Paul is a prisoner when writing these words. You must read the preceding verses to understand them.

The unbeliever does not see the Unsearchable Riches of Christ. That is impossible until you have made the same discovery which Paul made. There must be some such experience as is described by the word conversion.

Paul has been transformed from

a murderer, persecuting the early Christian church. Before his conversion he did not realize that he was living in rebellion against God's law. In his flesh was a fountain of unlawful desires. To the Romans he wrote, "In me, (that is in the flesh) dwelleth no good thing."

Until the conscience is aroused as to the heinousness of sin it is impossible to realize the unsearchable riches of Christ. We do not talk enough about conversion. Compare the poverty of the sinner to the wealth of the one who is heir to the joys of eternal life. Let us notice some of these riches in Christ.

First, he is the full revelation of the Godhead. As we know him, we know the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Heaven has bestowed upon him all the riches of its glory that we might comprehend in some measure the wealth of the people of God.

In him is the ability to pay the price that sets us free. The grace to pardon is within his power. How he can pay the debt and set us free we do not know but God has so arranged with him and he does it as multitudes can testify.

Another view of the unsearchable riches is seen in His redeeming Acts. Here we know his incarnation. He endured temptation that he might know how to deliver us. He was obedient unto death because some one must die for all. We share also in his resurrection and its glory. We are also ascended with him. In heaven he intercedes as our Great High Priest before God. We need no other for he is steadfast and faithful.

Let us note the unsearchable riches of his personality. His most bitter enemies could find no flaw in him. He is the growing figure of all time while Pilate, Celsus, Voltairre and the infidel world are reeling into the darkest night of despair. For two thousand years his personality has continued to enrich his disciples and Augustine and Luther and Knox and Wesley and Moody and Chapman and the church of all ages testifies to the inexhaustibleness of his personality.

St. Paul's M. E.

"Lost—A Soul," was the subject of the sermon delivered Sunday evening at the St. Paul's M. E. church by the pastor, Rev. H. W. Hargett. The text was taken from Mark 8:37: "What shall a man give in exchange for his soul?"

In discussing the subject, the Rev. Mr. Hargett, said in part:

This is one of the deepest and most profound questions in the Bible. The substitution of the word "life" for "soul" does not simplify it. The life referred to is more than mere physical life. It is something more than dust fashioned into bone and sinew, nerve and blood and flesh. It is the soul life, the essential man, the spiritual being, the fundamental self that will some day leave behind the things with which it has been vitally related here, its body, its position and its possessions.

What is the value of this soul? Among primitive people its value is merely commercial. "How much better is a man than a sheep? He may not be worth as much at market prices. Politically he has an economic value which must be conserved in the interest of the state. It is Christ alone who teaches us the true value of the human soul. He sets the value of one soul over against the whole world of money and matter. "What shall it profit a man if he gain the world and lose his own soul?" In those matchless parables of the lost sheep, the lost coin, the lost son, Christ shows how dear to the Father's heart is every soul. The value

Seek Eternal Things:—We look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal. II Corinthians 4:18.

Prayer: Open thou our eyes O Lord, that we may behold wondrous things out of thy law.

A New Gymnasium

If Rushville wants to keep up with the procession, it will be necessary to build a gymnasium and community building that will provide a seating capacity sufficient to accommodate those who want to attend basketball games and take care of the needs of the community for public gatherings.

All forward-looking people are agreed upon this. How to proceed is the question now confronting the city.

A group of school officials and others interested in basketball and the development of the city visited a number of high school gymnasiums to get ideas as to methods of construction and financing, and to learn the mistakes made elsewhere, so that Rushville can profit by them.

Previous to the trip by Rushville men, H. B. Allman, superintendent of schools, had corresponded with every school city that had erected a gymnasium during the past few years. The experiences of these places and the reactions they have experienced will be published serially in the Daily Republican.

Contrary to the impression in some quarters the erection of a community building and gymnasium, will not jeopardize the interests of Rushville taxpayers.

Although taxes may be high, in the estimation of some people, they are not responsible for all the ills of the body politic, as some would have us believe. Taxes, in themselves, have not contributed as much to the depression in building as has the cost of labor and building materials. Taxes have risen as much, in proportion, as the necessities of life.

Rushville is not in the deplorable condition that the pessimists have pictured it. The school city is practically out of debt and the water and light plant has shown an earning, without any taxes to support it, all statements to the contrary. The school city is not feeding indigent children, as stated in a letter to the editor of the Daily Republican a few days ago. What-ever misunderstanding there is about this matter should be cleared up.

Children of the lower grades do have the opportunity to drink one-half pint of milk each day. Parents who are able to do so financially, pay for the milk which their children drink. Milk given to other children is paid for by the Rushville Woman's Council from funds raised by volunteer subscription.

The city of Rushville is in debt for a park annex and boulevard and fire equipment. But taxpayers who want to see Rushville make advancement do not begrudge a cent that these improvements cost. New fire equipment was essential for the protection of the city's property. The park annex was a valuable improvement which will increase the value of the city as it will live, will reinforce the pride that every resident of Rushville should have in his home city and will be immeasurably appreciated in the years to come.

School Discipline

When parents lose patience with school teachers, because their disciplinary measures seem too severe, they frequently make the very grave mistake of not examining their own responsibility in the matter.

When they admit that their own children are beyond their control, it is scarcely fair to blame teachers for using methods that to them seem needless?

In signing a contract, teachers do not take the obligation of parenthood. They only agree to teach the children sent to them to the best of their ability. They do not control their conduct outside of the school room, neither do they have any responsibility for traits possessed by children, which interfere with the orderly conduct of the school.

These are matters that parents—especially when their children reach high school age—should give serious consideration.

If they have made a failure in discipline at home, what can they honestly expect from the schools?

Hunt's Washington Letter

BY HARRY B. HUNT
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON — Weird tales of buried treasure, of international conspiracies involving former diplomats, of clandestine romance in high society and of a vast subterranean labyrinth leading to a bootleggers' rendezvous, held Washington breathless for three days last fall following the discovery of an elaborate maze of underground passageways in the heart of the presidential residence section of the city.

All sorts of wild stories were started as to the origin and use of the tunnels.

Then the bubble of speculation, which had clothed them with the romance of intrigue and mystery, was burst by an announcement by Dr. Harrison Gray Dwyer, custodian of the National Museum, that he had built the tunnels by way of getting exercise.

Now, however, folks are wondering whether perhaps there wasn't something to the "buried treasure" story after all.

For Dr. Dwyer appears as purchaser, for a price of $2,300,000, of one of the largest and most elaborate apartment properties in the capital.

Anyway, all admit that as a "digger" Dr. Dwyer seems to have got somewhere.

CELEBRATION of first rank, designed to give a rebirth to American ideals and new stimulus to American achievement, is proposed for Washington in 1932. The occasion would be the two hundredth anniversary of the birth of George Washington.

Tentative plans for a fitting national celebration of Washington's bi-centennial already have been discussed by President Coolidge, with the congressional members of a commission which will have the arrangements in charge.

Historical and patriotic organizations, as well as leaders in American progress in art, science, industry and finance, have been given places on the body which will plan the celebration.

GENERAL ISAAC SHERWOOD of Toledo, O., who at 90 is the oldest member of Congress, sang his "swan song" to the House a few days ago in a speech contrasting the life of a congressman in Washington today and 52 years ago today.

As an index of the comparative cost of government today and then, starting his second term, Sherwood said:

"I remember the appropriation for salaries, clerk hire and upkeep of the White House that year was $42,800. This year we give our president the tidy sum of $500,000. General Grant had no body guard, no military staff, no White House police. I remember meeting him many times walking down Pennsylvania avenue alone.

"Members of Congress got $5,000 a year salary. We were allowed no secretary. We had to rent our offices out of our salary and we had to take our pen in hand to answer kicking letters from our constituents.

"We had no Department of Agriculture, hence the farmers were contented and reasonably prosperous."

South Dakota woman says she has lived to 106 because she tends to her own business, which is probably true.

Atlantic City man shot his wife and then himself, getting the right one when he shot himself.

This European opium argument isn't turning out as it should, if we have the right dope on the situation.

Grecks and Turks are arguing again. When they stop fighting it is just for the week-end.

Dancer in Cedar Rapids, Ia., who believed what a bootlegger told him, has kicked the bucket.

Frankfort (Mo.) bank cashier is missing so now Missouri detectives are trying to show him.

Dogs are being used to haul milk wagons in Germany, but if they see a cat they probably deliver butter-milk.

Many a man with a checkered past is now sitting quietly at home solving crossword puzzles.

South Chicago woman had 100 candles on her birthday cake because she never burned her candles at both ends.

In Chicago the telephone girls have a glee club, probably so they can sing their wrong numbers.

The world's failure to come to an end leaves us with no settlement of our European problems in sight.

GARFIELD UNABLE TO KEEP UP PACE

Terre Haute High School Comes Back Strong in Last Half, But Are Lost 45 to 30

LIONS IN FAST FINISH

Visitors Hold Lead 28 to 26 For Time, But Rushville Couldn't be Headed in Fast Game

Rushville high school won their second game of the week end when they stopped a rally in the last half and headed off Garfield of Terre Haute, defeating them 45 to 30, and subdued the strong and stubborn fight of the visiting team.

The first half ended 23 to 18 with Rushville leading all of the way, and with Garfield taking spurts on hitting the basket. In the second half the Terre Haute team came back with a flash and tied the score at 26 points, and then went in the lead 28 to 26 for a short time.

After Arbeckle tied the score at 28 and Miller dropped in a long one for Rushville, the Lions began to pull away from the visitors and were 15 points in the lead when the final gun sounded. The uncanny basket shooting of Cassle, Garfield, forward, was the outstanding feature of the game as he managed to break through time and time again, and was a hard player to stop.

Rushville started with their regular five players and each of them scored points in the first half, and they played in fine style most of the time, and especially when they were pushed. Garfield displayed a fine fight and never gave up. They also played an excellent floor game.

Arbeckle opened the scoring with a basket from the side, and on the next play he fouled, and Spencer

Play Brand of Ball That Won Them the County Title and Defeat Greensburg 23 to 21

WERE AHEAD MOST OF TIME

The Milroy high school Red Devils, playing a brand of ball that made them the county champs a few weeks ago, took the lead over the Tree City team at Greensburg Saturday night and were only headed once in the entire game, and won out 23 to 21.

Milroy fans, who accompanied the team to Greensburg were given a treat, and they were highly pleased with the showing made by the team.

The game was close and was a thriller from the start. The half ended with Milroy maintaining a one point lead, 15 to 14. In the second half, Archey and Readmond, guards, left the game on account of personals, but with Boring and Tremain in their places, the defense still held. Milroy is now planning on the sectional tourney, March 6 and 7, and they are expecting to take the honors.

The line-up and summary:
Milroy 23 Greensburg 21
Kinnett F. Magee
Selby F. Kirby
Moore C. Ely
Readmond G. Sasser
Archey G. Westhafer
Substitutions, Milroy, Tremain, Boring, Greensburg, Downs. Field goals, Kinnett, 5, Moore 3, Selby 2, Kirby 3, Magee 2, Ely 2; foul goals Moore 2, Kinnett, Magee 2, Ely 2, Sasser, Referee Skinner.

curtain raiser, but came out ahead in the last half and won 19 to 12.

The visiting team had things their own way in the first half, and were ahead 9 to 5 at the half. In the last half, the Rushville team got started and tied the score, and then put in the winning goals toward the end of the game.

The locals displayed good floor work, with Wainwright, Newbold and Cartmel setting the pace on goals, and for Garfield Laughlin and House figured best. The visiting team was the largest bunch of players that the locals have played against this season.

The line-up and summary:
Rushville 19 Terre Haute 12
Wainwright F. Laughlin
Newbold F. Kendell
Cartmel C. M. Daniels
Winkler G. House
Riddle G. Daniels
Field goals, Wainwright 4, Newbold 3, Cartmel 2, Laughlin 2, Kendell, House 2. Foul goals, Newbold, Laughlin 2. Referee Titsworth.

ing promoted by Mr. Tompkins and Mr. Endres, but on the contrary, the plan originated with members of the Boosters club, who approached them and asked for a proposal.

Local business men back of the movement point out that the modern tendency in industrial progress is to assist local industries rather than to endeavor to locate new factories. In this way, the waste and expense of moving plants is avoided, and in addition, cities which back home industries are not taking any chances with unknown or untried concerns.

As in this instance, it is argued, Rushville people have seen what the management of the Rushville Furniture company has accomplished, and by investing in preferred stock to build a companion plant under the same management, does not mean the risk that would accompany investment in an industrial proposition about which little or nothing was known.

Nice going over the week end. Two victories in a row. Rushville added 98 points to their side of the column and their opponents 53.

That old five man line-up worked in good shape Saturday night against Garfield of Terre Haute, and they managed to pull out of a bad hole in the last half, in order to put across a 15 point win.

GARFIELD WENT FAST

Garfield is not to be under rated. They sure put up a hard fight, and played a good floor game. Cassle, the forward, sure had an eye for the basket, and he was one of the hardest men to stop that the locals have seen this season.

That Carthage bunch on Friday night came back in the last half, but their hopes were soon crushed and crushed hard. They never gave up the fight, and by tourney time they will be hard for someone to tackle.

MILROY GOING GOOD

The most dangerous team in the county now looms as Milroy. They won the county tourney, and played superior ball Saturday night down at Greensburg. The Milroy tossers won out by two points over Greensburg, and that is more than Rushville did. It looks like this sectional tourney will be a real affair.

EVEN THE MIGHTY FALL

Newcastle sure suffered a terrible blow Friday night when that Greenfield team, scarcely unheard of this season, defeated them 41 to 29.

POOR SHOWING ON FOULS

The Lions were clear off on their foul shots Saturday night. Made only 3 out of 11. This is one department of the game that needs improvement.

Sorta begins to look like the bricks are getting staked higher. There will be much rejoicing someone of these days when a new gym is assured.

Morton of Richmond surprised us Friday night by making the defeat of Connersville so decisive. Maybe the time will be different in the regional, when Connersville plays 'em.

Vincennes walloped Technical of Indianapolis Saturday night—probably getting a little practice on the floor in the exposition building where the state finals will be played.

Anderson is not down hearted because they lost to Bedford. Mumps figured in the game, and if the mumps leave by tourney time, the version may be changed.

COLUMBUS SHOWS SPEED

Hittin' 'em saw the Columbus-Shelbyville game Friday night at Columbus. The Camels were unable to get through the defense of the Bull Dogs, and on the other hand Shelbyville was not quick enough in their offense. Shelbyville missed many shots, and if there is anything like bad breaks in basketball, they sure had 'em.

Columbus still has a fast bunch. Schinner, a new forward, will bear watching. He is a hard cue to stop—or at least Shelby guards couldn't halt him. He wasn't in the entire game, but was in long enough to make 16 points.

And Rushville can defeat either of the above teams, if they meet in the Richmond regional.

Just one month from today and we will tell you our pick for the state tourney. We also close up for the season at that time. A great many things can happen within the next month. Above all, here is hoping that we can tell you before then that "Rushville is going to have a new gym that will seat 5,000."

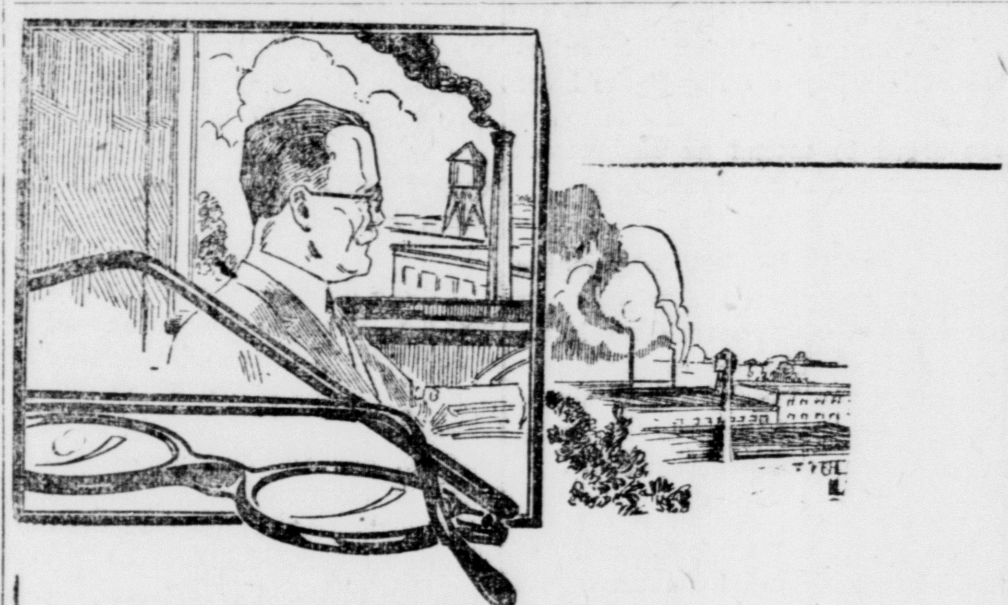

FAIRVIEW IS WINNER

Fairview A. C. club won the sectional tourney at Raleigh Saturday night, defeating Boston in the final game. Fairview will make a strong bid at the state tourney.

JUDGMENT FOR COOK

Justice Stech has rendered a decision in the case of Donald Cook against Ben Wilson, in which the plaintiff demanded damages as the outgrowth of the purchase of two dogs. The court found for the plaintiff awarding him $35 judgment. The case alleged that the plaintiff bought two dogs, said to be eligible for registry and the charge was made that the dogs were not the blooded stock as represented.

The Community Club will be entertained Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Joe Caldwell. All members are urged to attend as business of importance will be transacted.

There will be a Washington Birthday Party in the parlors of the First Presbyterian Church tonight at 7:30. The program will consist of games, contests and stunts that young people enjoy. All young people are urged to be present.

The Sunday School Council of the First Presbyterian church will meet Tuesday night in the parlors of the church at 7:30. Business of interest and importance will be considered and every officer and teacher is urged to be present.

There will be a Social club dinner dance at the club rooms Wednesday evening. Mrs. Rich Reed is the captain of the division, which will be hostess for the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. John Conroy entertained with a card party Sunday evening the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Ed Mullins and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Mullins and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Schrader and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gale and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tyner and family, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Cleary, Miss Lillian Parcell and Mark Parcell.

All the details have been arranged for the kitchen shower and social, announced by the Rebekahs' for Tuesday evening and a record attendance is anticipated by those in charge. This will be the first meeting held in the new building and much interest is being shown on that account. Equipment for the kitchen will be included in this shower. A program of games will precede the lunch. Linville's Hodges Branch String trio will furnish the music.

Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Hankins entertained a number of friends and relatives Friday evening with a surprise party, honoring the twenty-first birthday anniversary of their daughter, Mable. The evening was spent with music, dancing and games. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served to the following guests, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Miller and son Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Laughlin of Indianapolis, Misses May and Mary Brown, Clyde Murphy and Dean and Beverly Shaw of Connersville, Mr. and Mrs. John Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tremepohl and children, Mrs. Emma Sharp and daughter Emma Louise, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Owens, Mr. and Mrs. Chase Levi, Mrs. Mary Belle Woods, Frances Rogers and George Feaster of his city. The honored guest received many useful presents.

which God sets on the soul is shown by the price which he paid for its redemption. Calvary was a high price to pay but God knew that in the light of eternity it was worthy of the price paid through the gift of his son. He knew that that word "lost" when applied to a human soul is the blackest word in all the languages of earth. Death, black as it seems, may be but the gray of dawn fading into the light of coming day, but "Lost" is the blackness of midnight till Christ transforms it by his redeeming power.

Why in the great auction market of the world does man exchange his immortal soul for the things of time and of sense? Going, going gone! sold for thirty pieces of silver. Going gone, sold for a bowl of soup. Souls for sale: who will buy? Mammon offers and many respond. Pleasure bids and the bargain is concluded. Soul is sacrificed to sense, sacred things to secular, eternal realities to false appearances. God planned that sense should minister to soul, never that soul should be sacrificed to sense. Why then do men live such a topsy, turvey one eyed, badly proportioned life? Why do men lose their souls in the world market, when they might win them in Christ and see their true value in the radiance of God? Why is the appeal of the lower often victorious in the very presence of the higher? Answer: The lower impulse does not appeal to reason, it appeals to imagination. That lightning like artist pictures the present pleasure till it shuts out the consequences. It puts the spot light on the immediate satisfaction and leaves the future pain and bondage in the dark. If the blinded soul could see the future consequences as it seems and feel them afterward the sale would not take place. The gay colors that falsify the glorious and make glorious the false would give way to the clear light of truth. Let the spirit of Christ take possession of your hearts and the eternal realities will be glorified and the lower will appear in their true values.

fluence from the throne gave Woodrow Wilson and the matchless millions from America the victory on November 11, 1918.

"So through all the history of this republic, the thought of God always has been with the people in great crisis. In the most tragic hour in American history at Valley Forge, Washington went into the wilderness, still believing in God Almighty, and on bended knee prayed God that success might come to the cause that was almost lost, and God answered his prayer. "I am proud that we still reverence the same God and I realize, too, that our greatest need now is to have confidence in God."

In describing Washington's accomplishments as a statesman, Mr. Foley outlined his part in writing the constitution, as chairman of the convention.

"It," he said, "is the greatest instrument of government ever conceived in the mind of mortal man. There were no colleges or universities in that day, yet these men wrote a document no man has ever attempted to condemn."

Mr. Foley pleaded for a greater study of the constitution in the schools and Sunday schools.

"The hope of every child is centered in the supreme law of the land," he continued, "which guarantees our rights as free citizens to own property and to worship God according to the dictates of our own conscience. No greater service can be rendered these boys and girls than to teach them more about the constitution."

"On this Sabbath afternoon, when our thoughts are on God, send up a prayer to preserve this constitution, which made possible this free land of ours."

Mr. Foley recounted Washington's services to the country as president in organizing the executive, legislative and judicial branches of the government, and commented on the way the courts have protected the rights of individuals.

"The courts in this land are honest and efficient," he said. "I hear slander that the courts are for the rich. What man ever bought a court? Who is he? What man ever bought your own judge, Will Sparks whose integrity I well know. What student of history ever charged that the supreme court sold out the rights of any citizen for a mess of pottage."

"I want you to remember that your best friends are the courts of the land."

In closing, Mr. Foley read from Washington's farewell address, in which he showed he had a vision that covered two centuries, the speaker said. He urged study of the address by high school students and that attention of school children be called to it. He also referred to Washington's wise counsel against partisanship and entangling foreign alliances.

"America of tomorrow must become the great moral leader of the world," Mr. Foley asserted. "She is the only nation that can outlaw brutal, needless war. The world can't stand another war. In the name of Washington, in the name of Lincoln, Wilson, Harding and Coolidge let us become apostles of peace. America has a higher mission than to produce warriors. It must be a mission of love and fraternity. If we follow in the footsteps of Washington and Lincoln, we will be happy and contented in America."

Spring Fashion Sketches

Direct From New York.

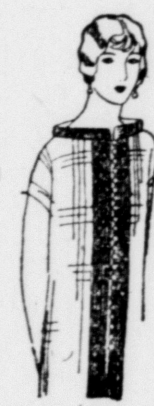

Boldly, deftly, sketching in a line here, subtly suggesting a curve there, Fashion has presented us with an enchanting picture of her favored styles for Spring. We find them hauntingly like, yet surprisingly unlike the mid-season modes. They're charming in indeed, but it is in their newness, their uniqueness, that their great appeal lies.

Flares

There are front flares of clever godets peeping out just above the hem of a satin frock; side flares too, offering piquant contrast to the straightness of a crepe dress; flared flounces; flared tiers; circular flares beginning at the waistline—oh, there's no end to their enchanting variety!

A smart spring coat of suedo, in the Prince of Wales style, slightly fitted, double breasted, with mannish notched collar —$25

Embroideries

Embroideries, vividly Chinese, richly tinselled, or brilliantly gay, enhance the smartness of many a modish satin crepe frock for afternoon, a flat crepe frock for sports or an elaborate ensemble. Spring coats, too, are often colorfully embroidered.

Pleats

In Fashion's enticing sketch of pleats, we find novel inverted pleats placed only in front, adding smart fullness to sport frocks of crepe; We find pleats introduced into side panels, which are caught below the hip with embroidered motifs, to hold the straight silhouette.

An attractive ensemble, consisting of long flannel coat in the new Monterey shade and dress combined of pretty printed silk and flannel —$25

Spring 1925 Silhouette

Straight slim lines contrasted with unexpected flares at the hemline, with all the fullness gathered to the front leaving a back that is flat and straight—that is the fashionable silhouette for spring.

Skirts are short, very short and often uneven in length, being longer in front to accentuate the front fullness.

Sleeves when long are usually tight to the elbow and there varied by flares or peasant puffs with tight cuffs. If short, they're very, very short.

Tunics Again

The new tunics are shorter and often jauntily flared in accordance with Fashion's fondness for the flare. They're found on many smart frocks. Indeed, so voguish are they that certain of the new coats have affected a simulated tunic.

All too often women accept their pains and aches as natural to their sex. They fail to realize that weak kidneys are often to blame for that backache, those headaches, dizzy spells and that tired, depressed feeling. Thousands have found new health and strength by helping the weakened kidneys with Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic. This Rushville case is one of many.

Mrs. Lizzy Borem, 840 W. Ninth St. says: "My back pained so severely it seemed it would break. I had to stop work and go to bed. My kidneys were sluggish, too. I used Doan's Pills from Johnson's Drug Store and several boxes restored my health and rid me of kidney trouble."

WASHINGTON HELD UP AS AN EXAMPLE

Michael E. Foley of Indianapolis Addresses Audience at Castle Theatre Sunday Afternoon

K. OF C. OBSERV

Day to Forget What Party or Church we Belong to, but Remember Only We Are Americans

George Washington as soldier, constitution-maker and president of the United States was held up as an example for every American boy and girl to follow by Michael E. Foley, an Indianapolis attorney, in an address at a Washington birthday celebration held by the Rushville council of the Knights of Columbus Sunday afternoon at the Castle theatre.

The Rose City quartet of New-castle, which seemed to have an inexhaustible supply of songs, provided most of the entertainment on the program. There was also two readings by Mrs. Earl Osborne and a piano solo, consisting of a medley of patriotic numbers, played by Mrs. Pat Gannon. The program closed with the singing of "America" by the audience.

Because of Washington's influence, Mr. Foley said, this is a land of hope for every boy and girl who has an aim in life.

"On this day," he declared, "we forget what political party we belong to and what Christian church we belong to. We remember only that we are Americans."

"George Washington will live in the hearts of the liberty-loving people of the world so long as justice reigns. He not only founded the republic, but he instituted constitutional government and served as president for eight years during the most trying time in American history."

Washington, the speaker pointed out, is an outstanding figure in American life so far as his record as a soldier is concerned. No man has ever rendered such a distinguished service in American history, he said, and recalled that Washington was not trained for war, but had given his life to the development of business enterprises in Virginia.

The speaker declared that Washington takes rank in leadership with the great military leaders of history and compared his experience and that of his soldiers with the experience of the trained military leaders and soldiers of Europe.

"He accomplished what he did," continued Mr. Foley, "because of the influence and help of almighty God. I have always believed that providence guided this country. God was with Washington just as he was with Lincoln and McKinley, and the same God and the same influence."

FOUR COMPLAINTS ARE FILED IN COURT TODAY

Suits Include Two on Accounts, One On Note and the Other For $2,500 Damages

POSSESSION SUIT NOT ENDED

Four complaints have been filed in the circuit court, two being on accounts, one for damages and another action on a note.

In the case of Clyde Merritt a suit for possession of a child, the evidence was not concluded Saturday by special Judge Fern Hines of Noblesville, and will be continued until a later date.

Among the new actions filed, is a complaint by the Gordon Hollow Blase Gate Company against Owen L. Carr, the demand being for $100 on an account. The same defendant also is sued by the Bump Confectionary Company in which $75 is demanded on an account.

Charlotte E. Barlow, administratrix of the estate of Elbin Barlow is plaintiff in an action seeking damages, and the defendants are Harry E. and Myrtle Snauling, with the demand for $2,500.

Grover F. White and Benjamin Foreman are plaintiffs in an action against Leslie B. Brown, the demand being for $750 judgment on a note.

UNLAWFUL FISHING IS CHARGED

Four Men Cited to Appear in Police Court Tonight

Four arrests were made Saturday night by police officers, in which charges of unlawful fishing were placed against them in police court, and they will be arraigned tonight before Mayor Thomas. The men arrested are: James L. Lewis, Donald Newman, Elmer Hendricks and Dula Pea. Chief of police Blackburn, and Patrolmen Smith and Everman made the arrests and stated that the men were using a spot light and trapping the fish. About 20 pounds of fish had been caught, when the officers arrested them, according to the chief of police. The men were allowed to go, and were told to report tonight in police station.

W. F. EASLEY SELLS PRINCESS THEATER

Pioneer Motion Picture Man of Rushville Announces Sale to Casady and Smith

POSSESSION NEXT MONDAY

New Owners Will Control all Three Play Houses in the City—Easley Here 14 Years

Walter F. Easley, the pioneer in the motion picture show business of this city, today announced the sale of the Princess theatre to Casady and Smith, present operators of the Mystic and Castle theatres.

The deal between the parties was begun last week and closed this morning. The change in the business will be made next Monday, March 1.

Mr. Easley came to Rushville fourteen years ago, when the motion picture business was in its infancy. He came from Elwood, Ind., and was employed as an operator at the Portola theatre, managed by Schmidt brothers. He later acquired the ownership of the theatre, which is now the Mystic theatre, and he called this the Princess theatre.

He made a big success in the operation of this theatre, and when the Masonic Temple was rebuilt after the fire, he took up enlarged quarters and moved the Princess theatre into its present location.

Mr. Easley also acquired the management of the K. of P. opera house in Greensburg, several months ago, and has been operating that theater very successfully. In closing the deal here, Mr. Easley will probably devote his entire attention to his interests in that city, although he has not made any definite decision concerning the future.

Casady and Smith, owners of the Mystic and Castle, and the purchasers of the Princess, came to Rushville several months ago, and have built up an excellent patronage at their two play houses.

They have not made any definite announcement concerning the future operation of the three theatres, but will more than likely continue the present policies maintained and an effort to give motion picture people the very best, will be made.

NIGHT CLASSES WILL ORGANIZE

Those Interested in Courses Urged to Attend Meeting

The evening classes which are being organized in commercial work and home economics will meet for organization at the Graham high school building at 7 o'clock Tuesday evening. This meeting will not compel any person to enter the classes but it is desired that every one interested in the organization of evening classes will be present.

The course will consist of classes in typewriting, dress making and millinery. Classes will be conducted twice a week and meeting nights that will accommodate the greatest number of students will be selected.

AMERICAN LEGION MEETING

The American legion meeting, usually held on Tuesday night, will be carried over this week until Thursday night, and the members are urged to remember the change and attend Thursday.

ANOTHER SECRET HOBBY HAS BEEN UNCOVERED

PAYROLL BANDITS AWAIT SENTENCES

Hold up in Connersville Last December is Solved by Confessions of Men Arrested

OFFICER PLEADS INNOCENCE

Confession States That Machine Was Stolen in Rushville—$6,700 Was Divided

Connersville, Ind., Feb. 23—Four men, arrested Saturday on charges of highway robbery in connection with the theft of the $6,700 payroll of the Indiana Lamp Company, December 13, 1924, pleaded guilty to the charge this morning in the circuit court before Judge Himelick, and their sentence will be passed Wednesday.

The fifth member of the alleged bandit gang, Fred Swift, a patrolman, pleaded not guilty, and will be tried Wednesday, which caused the postponement of the sentence on the other four until after his trial.

The men in jail, and who pleaded guilty to the charge of Carl Hackleman, age 37, local jeweler; George Allin 24, Cyril Johnson age 19 and Howard Thomas, age 32. Allin and Johnson live south of Connersville in Orange township. Thomas is an automobile salesman and was arrested in Decatur, Illinois and returned to Connersville.

Full confessions were made after the arrests. The five men are charged with planning the robbery, and divided the money equally, according to the confessions.

Officials asserted today that the five men have been under suspicion since the time of the holdup. Investigations have been conducted by three different sets of detectives. Patrolman Swift was serving as the payroll guard at the time of the holdup. C. R. Jontz, paymaster, was driving the car.

According to the confessions, as reported by the officers, the holdup was planned in detail at the Thomas home. Thomas, Johnson and Allin talked the matter over Thursday night before the robbery it is alleged. Johnson and Allin went to Rushville and stole an automobile for use in the robbery. Thomas, according to the confessions, made arrangements with Swift to do some "fake shooting."

MRS. MOORE IMPROVES

Mrs. James Moore, who underwent an operation at the Memorial Hospital in Connersville last week, is improving nicely.

WALTER TRIBBEY EXPIRES

Walter Tribbey, age 49 years, a resident of near Arlington, died Sunday at the Robert Long hospital in Indianapolis, where he had been taking treatment. The body will be brought to the Christian church in Arlington for services Tuesday morning at ten o'clock and burial will be made in the Arlington cemetery.

FORMER LOCAL WOMAN DIES AT GREENSBURG

Mrs. Mary C. Collier, Invalid For Eight Years, Expires at Home of Her Daughter

SERVICES HERE TUESDAY

Mrs. Mary C. Collier, formerly of this city, expired at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Will Downey in Greensburg, about six o'clock Saturday evening.

Mrs. Collier's death was caused from a protracted illness, having been an invalid for about eight years. She was 67 years of age, and is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Downey, at whose home she died and Mrs. Will O'Neil of Indianapolis, formerly of this city, and a son Harry Collier of Indianapolis and a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Omer Collier. Seventeen grand children and one sister, Mrs. Charlotte Kirkpatrick of Falmouth, and a brother Joel Carson of Rushville, are among the survivors.

The funeral services will be held Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the St. Mary's Catholic church in this city, in charge of the Rev. Francis Schaub, and burial will be made in Calvary cemetery.

PENNANT AWARDED TO COUNTY

Once More Honored Because of Christmas Seal Sale

On account of the earnest work of the Psi Iota Xi sorority and townhouse workers the Rush county Tuberculosis Association, has again been awarded the pennant by the state association at their annual meeting held in Indianapolis last Friday.

Rushville was among one of the counties in its class, making the best showing in the Christmas seal sale last year. This is the fourth year Rush county has received the pennant and each year the sorority has planned and conducted the campaign, which has shown an annual increase in sales.

State Legislature Today Votes $10,000 For Relief, Without Dissenting Vote

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 23—Under suspension of the rules the state legislature today rushed through a bill appropriating $10,000 for the relief of relatives of the fifty one miners killed in the explosion at Sullivan, Friday.

The bill passed both houses without a dissenting vote. Both house and senate adopted resolutions of sympathy for the families of the blast victims.

The bill provides that $10,000 shall be spent under supervision of Governor Jackson.

Sullivan, Ind., Feb. 23—Demand that the cause of the disaster in the City Mine Friday be definitely determined was made by the Sullivan county grand jury today in a report filed with Norral Harris, county prosecutor.

The report requested Harris to convene the grand jury to see if criminal negligence was found to be responsible for the blast and recommended that the information obtained in the investigation be used to amend the state mining laws to prevent a repetition of such catastrophe.

While the world at large today probably is beginning to forget last Friday's disaster at the City mine, the town and county of Sullivan, have just awakened to a full realization of the extent of their disaster. The heart-breaking climax came as ambulances bore the last of the 51 dead, victims of the mine horror from morgues to the homes of their families preparatory to the funerals.

First of the funerals were held yesterday were those of Cecil Carthy and his uncle, Dave Smith. Each family has arranged to bury its dead when and where it chooses.

ROTARIANS GO TO SOUTH BEND

Seven Leave This Morning for Annual State Conference

Seven members of the Rushville Rotary club left this morning for South Bend to attend the annual conference of the twentieth Rotary district, composed of Indiana clubs. They joined the Indianapolis Rotary club delegation and went on a special train leaving Indianapolis this morning at 8:15 o'clock.

The conference will be addressed by leading Rotarians of the state and a number from other parts of the United States. Coach Rockne of Notre Dame will present his famous football team and explain some of the successful plays he used, as one of the entertainment features of the conference.

The local delegation was composed of Hugh E. Maury, Laurence L. Allen, John A. Titsworth, Will O. Penlner, George J. Griesser, Donald D. Ball and Roy E. Harrold.

FULL QUOTA OF STOCK REQUIRED

Will be Necessary to Subscribe Total Preferred Issue to Get New Furniture Factory

NOW ABOUT $10,000 SHORT

Type of Construction Decided on Will Make Cost of Building go Above First Estimate

The type of construction decided on for the proposed furniture factory, which I. L. Endres and Robert L. Tompkins of the Rushville Furniture company proposed to erect, makes it impossible to build the building for $75,000, which Rushville citizens obligated themselves to subscribe for preferred stock and it has been decided that the full amount of the issue will have to be pledged before plans for the factory can proceed.

It is now estimated, since the local furniture manufacturers have decided that a one story building is the only kind that will meet their requirements, that they will have to put up money themselves in addition to the $75,000, in order to erect the size and type of plant that they want. This is in addition to the equipment, which will be purchased with money invested by Mr. Tompkins and Mr. Endres, and which will be represented by common stock.

The pledges for preferred stock are about $10,000 short of the goal set at the beginning of the campaign. It will now be necessary to raise the additional $10,000 through the sale of preferred stock in order to acquire the factory.

Mr. Endres and Mr. Tompkins have addressed a letter to Omer Trusler, president of the Boosters club, to this effect. They expressed a desire to have the matter closed by March 1.

Recently a letter was mailed to all those who had subscribed for stock, asking them to make a payment of one-fourth on their pledge at once, with the promise that the new company would be incorporated by February 15.

All of the subscribers, with the exception of fourteen, either paid or made arrangements to make the first payment. Those who did not attend to the matter promptly delayed the incorporation. They have since been seen and all but one who pledged themselves to take some of the stock, have met the requirements.

In the meantime, however, it has developed that a one-story building is the only practical kind to erect and that it will cost more than first contemplated, which accounts for the decision to require a one hundred percent subscription to the $75,000 preferred stock issue before the company is incorporated.

Many seem to have the impression that the factory project is being continued on Page Five

STRONG SERMONS ELSEWHERE

"Lost—A Soul" Delivered by Rev. Mr. Hargett and Unsearchable Riches by Rev. Mr. Wilson

Strong and interesting sermons were preached in the churches of Rushville Sunday, with a first of a series being started at the First United Presbyterian church, under the general heading, "Our Lord's Estimate of Himself." The opening topic Sunday evening was, "I am the Door."

At the First Presbyterian church, the Rev. Gibson Wilson preached on the subject, "The Unsearchable Riches of Christ."

At the St. Paul's M. E. church the Rev. Mr. Hargett concluded his sermons on the general theme, "That which is Lost," and in his message Sunday night dwelt upon the subject, "Lost—A Soul."

United Presbyterian

The sermon on Sabbath night at the First United Presbyterian church delivered by the pastor, Rev. E. G. McKibben, was based on John 10:9 "I am the door." This was the first in a series under the general heading "Our Lord's Estimate of Himself." The pastor said in part:

A door served about three main purposes. It excludes. It includes and it protects. Jesus as the door excludes from his Kingdom those who are too stubborn to repent, those who are too wilful to be led; and others too proud to humble themselves. Many a poor soul has gone down to death because it was unwilling to comply with the conditions of entrance through Christ as the door.

As the door He admits into His kingdom the opposite of those He excludes. The repentant and the teachable and the humble are cordially welcomed and graciously received. For all such the door is ajar. "Behold I have set before you an open door." It is accessible. One may enter it any place or at any time. It is plainly labelled so that no one need mistake. Its only rival is the wide gate leading

B. F. CATO ACCEPTS A CALL FROM RUSHVILLE

Marshalltown, Iowa, Minister Will Become Pastor of Main Street Christian Church May 1

WIRES ACCEPTANCE SUNDAY

The Rev. B. F. Cato of Marshalltown, Iowa, has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Main Street Christian church, it was announced at the Sunday morning services of the church, and will assume his duties in Rushville May 1.

The Rev. Cato was invited to become pastor following his address to the Century Bible class of men at a banquet in the basement of the church, and an informal talk to members of the congregation, last Wednesday evening. A telegram from him was received Sunday, morning shortly before the beginning of the services at the church.

The new pastor comes highly recommended as a pastor and preacher. He is a native of Indiana, having been born and reared in the southern part of the state, and has served several churches in Indiana.

The Rev. Mr. Cato is a graduate of the College of Bible at Lexington Kentucky, now Transylvania university, and his first pastorate was a small church in Eastern Indiana. He was called to Thornstown, in Boone county, and later went to New Albany, where he was pastor of the leading Christian church for six years. From New Albany, he went to Little Rock, Arkansas, and then to Marshalltown, which is twice the size of Rushville in population.

The Rev. Mr. Cato has a married son living in New Albany and a daughter of high school age.

into the narrow way. Then this door is for all. "Whosoever may come." And "He that cometh to me I will in, no wise cast out."

As the door He protects those who have entered. "By Me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and go out, and find pasture." He protects them from wandering too far. When He puts them forth He goes before them. "His rod and staff comfort them." "He makes to lie down in green pastures. So long as they abide in His love, and obey His voice, and trust in His promises, they are safe."

He protects them from the assaults of enemies and from evil associations and from false teachers. The world is full of false teaching today. Every precious doctrine of revelation is being called in question: The deity of Christ, His virgin birth, His atonement, and His resurrection from the dead. All this is only an effort to discredit Him and so to throw of the restraints of His lordship. Man also is traced to a bestial ancestry that the voice of conscience may be hushed and that as is spoke in the second Psalm "Men may cast away his chords from them." In sharp contrast to such teachings God's word gives man a more glorious origin and a more splendid destiny. "Ye are sons of God through Jesus Christ." "Ye are heirs of God." "Your citizenship is in heaven." "Angels are your fellow servants."

First Presbyterian

"The Unsearchable Riches of Christ" was the topic of the sermon delivered Sunday night at the First Presbyterian church by the Rev. Gibson Wilson. A portion of his discourse is quoted as follows:

Ephesians 3:8 "The unsearchable riches of Christ." Paul is a prisoner when writing these words. You must read the preceding verses to understand them.

The unbeliever does not see the Unsearchable Riches of Christ. That is impossible until you have made the same discovery which Paul made. There must be some such experience as is described by the word conversion.

Paul has been transformed from

a murderer, persecuting the early Christian church. Before his conversion he did not realize that he was living in rebellion against God's law. In his flesh was a fountain of unlawful desires. To the Romans he wrote, "In me, (that is in the flesh) dwelleth no good thing."

Until the conscience is aroused as to the heinousness of sin it is impossible to realize the unsearchable riches of Christ. We do not talk enough about conversion. Compare the poverty of the sinner to the wealth of the one who is heir to the joys of eternal life. Let us notice some of these riches in Christ.

First, he is the full revelation of the Godhead. As we know him we know the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Heaven has bestowed upon him all the riches of its glory that we might comprehend in some measure the wealth of the people of God.

In him is the ability to pay the price that sets us free. The grace to pardon is within his power. How he can pay the debt and set us free we do not know but God has so arranged with him and he does it as multitudes can testify.

Another view of the unsearchable riches is seen in His Redeeming Acts. Here we know his incarnation. He endured temptation that he might know how to deliver us. He was obedient unto death because some one must die for all. We share also in his resurrection and its glory. We are also ascended with him. In heaven he intercedes as our Great High Priest before God. We need no other for he is steadfast and faithful.

Let us note the unsearchable riches of his personality. His most bitter enemies could find no flaw in him. He is the growing figure of all time while Pilate, Celsus, Voltaire and the infidel world are retiring into the darkest night of despair. For two thousand years his personality has continued to enrich his disciples and Augustine and Luther and Knox and Wesley and Moody and Chapman and the church of all ages testifies to the inexhaustibleness of his personality.

St. Paul's M. E.

"Lost—A Soul," was the subject of the sermon delivered Sunday evening at the St. Paul's M. E. church by the pastor, Rev. H. W. Hargett. The text was taken from Mark 8:37: "What shall a man give in exchange for his soul?"

In discussing the subject, the Rev. Mr. Hargett, said in part: This is one of the deepest and most profound questions in the Bible. The substitution of the word "life" for "soul" does not simplify it. The life referred to is more than mere physical life. It is something more than dust fashioned into bone and sinew, nerve and blood and flesh. It is the soul life, the essential man, the spiritual being, the fundamental self that will some day leave behind the things with which it has been vitally related here, its body, its position and its possessions.

What is the value of this soul? Among primitive people its value is merely commercial. "How much better is a man than a sheep? He may not be worth as much at market prices. Politically he has an economic value which must be conserved in the interest of the state. It is Christ alone who teaches us the true value of the human soul. He sets the value of one soul over against the whole world of money and matter. "What shall it profit a man if he gain the world and lose his own soul?" In those matchless parables of the lost sheep, the lost coin, the lost son, Christ shows how dear to the Father's heart is every soul. The value

Seek Eternal Things.—We look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen; for the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal. 31 Corinthians 4:18.

Prayer: Open thou our eyes O Lord, that we may behold wondrous things out of thy law.

A New Gymnasium

If Rushville wants to keep up with the procession, it will be necessary to build a gymnasium and community building that will provide a seating capacity sufficient to accommodate those who want to attend basketball games and take care of the needs of the community for public gatherings.

All forward-looking people are agreed upon this. How to proceed is the question now confronting the city.

A group of school officials and others interested in basketball and the development of the city visited a number of high school gymnasiums to get ideas as to methods of construction and financing, and to learn the mistakes made elsewhere, so that Rushville can profit by them.

Previous to the trip by Rushville, men, H. B. Alhman, superintendent of schools, had corresponded with every school city that had erected a gymnasium during the past few years. The experiences of these places and the reactions they have experienced will be published serially in the Daily Republican.

Contrary to the impression in some quarters the erection of a community building and gymnasium, will not jeopardize the interests of Rushville taxpayers.

Although taxes may be high, in the estimation of some people, they are not responsible for all the ills of the body politic, as some would have us believe. Taxes, in themselves, have not contributed as much to the depression in building as has the cost of labor and building materials. Taxes have risen as much, in proportion, as the necessities of life.

Rushville is not in the deplorable condition that the pessimists have pictured it. The school city is practically out of debt and the water and light plant has shown an earning, without any taxes to support it, all statements to the contrary. The school city is not feeding indigent children, as stated in a letter to the editor of the Daily Republican a few days ago. What over misunderstanding there is about this matter should be cleared up.

Children of the lower grades do have the opportunity to drink one-half pint of milk each day. Parents who are able to do so financially, pay for the milk which their children drink. Milk given to other children is paid for by the Rushville Woman's Council from funds raised by volunteer subscription.

The city of Rushville is in debt for a park annex and boulevard and fire equipment. But taxpayers who want to see Rushville make advancement do not begrudge a cent that these improvements cost. New fire equipment was essential for the protection of the city's property. The park annex was a valuable improvement which will increase the value of the city as a place to live, will reinforce the pride that every resident of Rushville should have in his home city and will be immeasurably appreciated in the years to come.

School Discipline

When parents lose patience with school teachers, because their disciplinary measures seem too severe, they frequently make the very grave mistake of not examining their own responsibility in the matter.

When they admit that their own children are beyond their control, it is scarcely fair to blame teachers for using methods that to them seem needless?

In signing a contract, teachers do not take the obligation of parenthood. They only agree to teach the children sent to them to the best of their ability. They do not control their conduct outside of the school room, neither do they have any responsibility for traits possessed by children, which interfere with the orderly conduct of the school.

These are matters that parents—especially when their children reach high school age—should give serious consideration.

If they have made a failure in discipline at home, what can they honestly expect from the schools?

Hunt's Washington Letter

BY HARRY R. HUNT

NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON — World titles of buried treasure, of international conspiracies involving former diplomats, of clandestine romance in high society and of a vast subterranean labyrinth leading to a bootleggers' rendezvous, held Washington breathless for three days last fall following the discovery of an elaborate maze of underground passageways in the heart of the better residence section of the city.

All sorts of wild stories were started as to the origin and use of the tunnels.

Then the bubble of speculation which had clothed them with the romance of intrigue and mystery, was burst by an announcement by Dr. Harrison Gray Dyer, custodian of lepidoptera in the National Museum, that he had built the tunnels by way of getting exercise.

Now, however, folks are wondering whether perhaps there wasn't something to the "buried treasure" story after all.

For Dr. Dyer appears as purchaser, for a price of $2,500,000, of one of the largest and most elaborate apartment properties in the capital.

Anyway, all admit that as a "digger" Dr. Dyer seems to have got somewhere.

CELEBRATION of first rank designed to give a rebirth to American ideals and new stimulus to American achievement, is proposed for Washington Feb. 23. The occasion would be the two hundredth anniversary of the birth of George Washington.

Relative plans for a fitting national celebration of Washington's bi-centennial already have been discussed by President Coolidge with the congressional members of a commission which will have the arrangements in charge.

Historical and patriotic organizations, as well as leaders in American progress in art, science, industry and finance, have been given places on the body which will plan the celebration.

GENERAL ISAAC SHERWOOD of Toledo, O., who at 98 is the oldest member of Congress, sang his "Amen song" to the House a few days ago in a speech contrasting the life of a congressman in Washington today and 58 years ago today.

As an index of the comparative cost of government today and then, when General Grant was just starting his second term, Sherwood said:

"I remember the appropriation for salaries, clerk hire and upkeep of the White House that year was $42,500. This year we give our president the tidy sum of $500,000."

"General Grant had no body guard, no military staff, no White House police. I remember meeting him many times walking down Pennsylvania avenue alone."

"Members of Congress got $500 a year salary. We were allowed no salary. We had to rent our offices out of our salary and we had to take our pen in hand to answer kicking letters from our constituents."

"We had no Department of Agriculture, hence the farmers were contented and reasonably prosperous."

GARFIELD UNABLE TO KEEP UP PACE

Terre Haute High School Comes Back Strong in Last Half, But Are Lost 45 to 30

LIONS IN FAST FINISH

Visitors Held Lead 28 to 26 For Time, But Rushville Couldn't be Headed in Fast Game

Rushville high school won their second game of the week end when they stopped a rally in the last half and headed off Garfield of Terre Haute, defeating them 45 to 30, and subdued the strong and stubborn fight of the visiting team.

The first half ended 23 to 18 with Rushville leading all of the way, and with Garfield taking spurts on hitting the basket. In the second half the Terre Haute team came back with a flash and tied the score at 26 points, and then went in the lead 28 to 26 for a short time.

After Arbuckle tied the score at 28 and Miller dropped in a long one for Rushville, the lions began to pull away from the visitors and were 15 points in the lead when the final gun sounded. The uncanny basket shooting of Cassie, Garfield, forward, was the outstanding feature of the game as he managed to break through time and time again, and was a hard player to stop.

Rushville started with their regular five players and each of them scored points in the first half, and they played in fine style most of the time, and especially when they were pushed. Garfield displayed a fine fight and never gave up. They also played an excellent floor game.

Arbuckle opened the scoring with a basket from the side, and on the next play he fouled, and Spencer for Garfield made a point. Lakin scored a goal and Newbold came down for one, giving Rushville 6 and the visitors one. Garfield called time. On the next toss up, Mendenhall scored a goal but Arbuckle came back with one for Rushville putting the score 8 to 3.

Miller and Lakin each fouled, but Garfield missed all three of their chances. Arbuckle made the score 10 to 3 when he dropped in another goal. Cassie, forward went in for Garfield and made a goal on his first attempt, but McNamara, matched it with one under the basket making the score 12 to 5. Garfield fouled and Arbuckle made good one of the 2 attempts, and when Cassie scored again, the count was 13 to 7, with Rushville leading.

Lakin fouled Murphy, and the crowd booed. Murphy made the goal, and he was given another chance on a foul called on the crowd, but he missed. Lakin scored from the field, making the score 15 to 8. Miller dropped in a nice one for Rushville, and the score was 17 to 8, with the Terre Haute team again calling time.

When the play resumed Cassie scored two field goals in fast time, pulling the score 17 to 12. Lakin scored again from center. Miller was fouled, and given a chance but missed, and Lakin batted the ball in for a field goal, putting the score 21 to 12. Lakin scored again, putting it 23 to 12. Murphy fouled Newbold, but he missed the chance.

Before the half ended, Garfield staged a rally and had the best of things for a few minutes, with goals by McKenna, Cassie and Mendenhall that brought the score 23 to 18 when the gun sounded the first half.

The rally started by Garfield at the end of the first half was carried over into the second half. Miller fouled and Mendenhall counted both shots, making the score 23 to 20. Mendenhall fouled Newbold who added a point for Rushville, and Newbold came back and scored a field goal, making the score 26 to 20. Cassie and Calvert for Garfield each scored goals, bringing the count 26 to 24 and Cassie tied the score at 26. Rushville called time.

Miller missed on a foul, and Spencer for Terre Haute put his team in the lead with a field goal, 28 to 26. Like a flash, Arbuckle tied things up for Rushville, and Miller dropped in a long one that gave Rushville the lead again 30 to 28, and Garfield called time.

The last half was ten minutes gone when Newbold scored from the field, making the score 32 to 28 and when McNamara fouled, Cassie made good one of the chances, making the count 32 to 29. Garfield was then held scoreless until the gun sounded, when they were given a chance on a foul and scored the additional point. Rushville managed to pull away and piled up the 15 point advantage, making several changes in the line-up before the game closed.

The lineup and summary:

MILROY HIGH DAZZLES GREENSBURG-TOSSERS

Play Brand of Ball That Won Them the County Title and Defeat Greensburg 23 to 21

WERE AHEAD MOST OF TIME

The Milroy high school Red Devils, playing a brand of ball that made them the county champs a few weeks ago, took the lead over the Tree City team at Greensburg Saturday night and were only headed once in the entire game, and won out 23 to 21.

Milroy fans, who accompanied the team to Greensburg were given a treat, and they were highly pleased with the showing made by the team.

The game was close and was a thriller from the start. The half ended with Milroy maintaining a one point lead, 15 to 14. In the second half, Archey and Readmond, guards, left the game on account of personals, but with Boring and Tremain in their places, the defense still held. Milroy is now planning on the sectional tourney, March 6 and 7, and they are expecting to take the honors.

The line-up and summary:
Milroy 23 Greensburg 21
Kinnett F Magee
Selby C Kirby
Moore F Ely
Readmond G Sasser
Archey G Westhafer
Substitutions, Milroy, Tremain, Boring, Greensburg, Downs. Field goals, Kinnett, 5, Moore 3, Selby 2, Kirby 3, Magee 2, Ely 2; foul goals Moore 2, Kinnett, Magee 2, Ely 2, Sasser. Referee Skinner.

curtain raiser, but came out ahead in the last half and won 19 to 12.

The visiting team had things their own way in the first half, and were ahead 9 to 5 at the half. In the last half, the Rushville team got started and tied the score, and then put in the winning goals toward the end of the game.

The locals displayed good floor work, with Wainwright, Newbold and Cartmel setting the pace on goals, and for Garfield Laughlin and House figured best. The visiting team was the largest bunch of players, that the locals have played against this season.

The line-up and summary:
Rushville 19 Terre Haute 12
Wainwright F Laughlin
Newbold F Kendall
Cartmel C McDaniels
Winkler G House
Readle G Daniels

ing promoted by Mr. Tompkins and Mr. Endres, but on the contrary, the plan originated with members of the Boosters club, who approached them and asked for a proposal.

Local business men back of the movement point out that the modern tendency in industrial progress is to assist local industries rather than to endeavor to locate new factories. In this way, the waste and expense of moving plants is avoided, and in addition, cities which back home industries are not taking any chances with unknown or untried concerns.

As in this instance, it is argued, Rushville people have seen what the management of the Rushville Furniture company has accomplished, and by investing in preferred stock to build a companion plant under the same management, does not mean the risk that would accompany investment in an industrial proposition about which little or nothing was known.

Nice going over the week end. Two victories in a row. Rushville added 98 points to their side of the column and their opponents 53.

That old five man line-up worked in good shape Saturday night against Garfield of Terre Haute, and they managed to pull out of a bad hole in the last half, in order to pat across a 15 point win.

GARFIELD WENT FAST

Garfield is not to be under rated. They sure put up a hard fight, and played a good floor game. Cassie, the forward, sure had an eye for the basket, and he was one of the hardest men to stop that the locals have seen this season.

That Carthage bunch on Friday night came back in the last half, but their hopes were soon crushed and crushed hard. They never gave up the fight, and by tourney time they will be hard for someone to tackle.

MILROY GOING GOOD

The most dangerous team in the county now looms as Milroy. They won the county tourney, and played superior ball Saturday night down at Greensburg. The Milroy tossers, won out by two points over Greensburg, and that is more than Rushville did. It looks like this sectional tourney will be a real affair.

EVEN THE MIGHTY FALL

Newcastle sure suffered a terrible blow Friday night when that Greenfield team, scarcely unheard of this season, defeated them 41 to 29.

POOR SHOWING ON FOULS

The Lions were clear off on their foul shots Saturday night. Made only 3 out of 14. This is one department of the game that needs improvement.

Sorta begins to look like the bricks are getting staked higher. There will be much rejoicing someone of these days when a new gym is assured.

Morton of Richmond surprised us Friday night by making the defeat of Connersville so decisive. Maybe the tune will be different in the regional, when Connersville plays 'em.

Vincennes walloped Technical of Indianapolis Saturday night—probably getting a little practice on the floor in the exposition building where the state finals will be played.

Anderson is not down hearted because they lost to Bedford. Mumps figured in the game, and if the mumps leave by tourney time, the version may be changed.

COLUMBUS SHOWS SPEED

Hitting 'em saw the Columbus-Shelbyville game Friday night at Columbus. The Canals were unable to get through the defense of the Bull Dogs, and on the other hand Shelbyville was not quick enough in their offense. Shelbyville missed many shots, and if there is anything like bad breaks in basketball, they sure had 'em.

Columbus still has a fast bunch. Schinner, a new forward, will bear watching. He is a hard one to stop—or at least Shelby guards couldn't halt him. He wasn't in the entire game, but was in long enough to make 16 points.

And Rushville can defeat either of the above teams, if they meet in the Richmond regional.

Just one month from today and we will tell you our pick for the state tourney. We also close up for the season at that time. A great many things can happen within the next month. Above all, here is hoping that we can tell you before then that "Rushville is going to have a new gym that will seat 5,000".

FAIRVIEW IS WINNER

Fairview A. C. club won the sectional tourney at Raleigh Saturday night, defeating Boston in the final game. Fairview will make a strong bid at the state tourney.

JUDGMENT FOR COOK

Justice Stech has rendered a decision in the case of Donald Cook against Ben Wilson, in which the plaintiff demanded damages as the outgrowth of the purchase of two dogs. The court found for the plaintiff awarding him $35 judgment. The case alleged that the plaintiff bought two dogs, said to be eligible for registry and the charge was made that the dogs were not the blooded stock as represented.

The honored guest received many useful presents.

which God sets on the soul is shown by the price which he paid for its redemption. Calvary was a high price to pay but God knew that in the light of eternity it was worthy of the price paid through the gift of his son. He knew that that word "lost" when applied to a human soul is the blackest word in all the languages of earth. Death, black as it seems, may be but the gray of dawn fading into the light of coming day, but "Lost" is the blackness of midnight till Christ transforms it by his redeeming power.

Why in the great auction market of the world does man exchange his immortal soul for the things of time and of sense? Going, going gone! sold for thirty pieces of silver. Going going gone, sold for a bowl of soup. Souls for sale: who will buy? Mammon offers and many respond. Pleasure bids and the bargain is concluded. Soul is sacrificed to sense, sacred things to secular, eternal realities to false appearances. God planned that sense should minister to soul, never that soul should be sacrificed to sense. Why then do men live such a topsy, turvey one-eyed, badly proportioned life? Why do men lose their souls in the world market, when they might win them in Christ and see their true value in the radiance of God? Why is the appeal of the lower often victorious in the very presence of the higher? Answer: The lower impulse does not appeal to reason, it appeals to imagination. That lightning like artist pictures the present pleasure till it shuts out the consequences. It puts the spot light on the immediate satisfaction and leaves the future pain and bondage in the dark. If the blinded soul could see the future consequences as it seems and feels them afterward the sale would not take place. The gay colors that falsify the glorious and make glorious the false would give way to the clear light of truth. Let the spirit of Christ take possession of your hearts and the eternal realities will be glorified and the lower will appear in their true values.

fluence from the throne gave Woodrow Wilson and the matchless millions from America the victory on November 11, 1918.

"So through all the history of this republic, the thought of God always has been with the people in great crisis. In the most tragic hour in American history at Valley Forge, Washington went into the wilderness, still believing in God Almighty, and on bended knee prayed God that success might come to the cause that was almost lost, and God answered his prayer. "I am proud that we still reverence the same God and I realize, too, that our greatest need now is to have confidence in God."

In describing Washington's accomplishments as a statesman, Mr. Foley outlined his part in writing the constitution, as chairman of the convention.

"It," he said, "is the greatest instrument of government ever conceived in the mind of mortal man. There were no colleges or universities in that day, yet these men wrote a document no man has ever attempted to condemn."

Mr. Foley pleaded for a greater study of the constitution in the schools and Sunday schools.

"The hope of every child is centered in the supreme law of the land," he continued, "which guarantees our rights as free citizens to own property and to worship God according to the dictates of our own conscience. No greater service can be rendered these boys and girls than to teach them more about the constitution."

"On this Sabbath afternoon, when our thoughts are on God, send up a prayer to preserve this constitution, which made possible this free land of ours."

Mr. Foley recounted Washington's services to the country as president in organizing the executive, legislative and judicial branches of the government, and commented on the way the courts have protected the rights of individuals.

"The courts in this land are honest and efficient," he said. "I hear slander that the courts are for the rich. What man ever bought a court? Who is he? What man ever bought your own judge, Will Sparks whose integrity I well know. What student of history ever charged that the supreme court sold out the rights of any citizen for a mess of pottage."

"I want you to remember that your best friends are the courts of the land."

In closing, Mr. Foley read from Washington's farewell address, in which he showed he had a vision that covered two centuries, the speaker said. He urged study of the address by high school students and that attention of school children be called to it. He also referred to Washington's wise counsel against partisanship and ennobling foreign alliances.

"America of tomorrow must become the great moral leader of the world," Mr. Foley asserted. "She is the only nation that can outlaw brutal, needless war. The world can't stand another war. In the name of Washington, in the name of Lincoln, Wilson, Harding and Coolidge let us become apostles of peace. America has a higher mission than to produce warriors. It must be a mission of love and fraternity. If we follow in the footsteps of Washington and Lincoln, we will be happy and contented in America."

Spring Fashion Sketches

Direct From New York.

Boldly, deftly, sketching in a line here, subtly suggesting a curve there, Fashion has presented us with an enchanting picture of her favored styles for Spring. We find them hauntingly like, yet surprisingly, unlike the mid-season modes. They're charming indeed, but it is in their newness, their uniqueness, that their great appeal lies.

Flares

There are front flares of clever godets peeping out just above the hem of a satin frock; side flares too, offering piquant contrast to the straightness of a crepe dress; flared flounces; flared tiers; circular flares beginning at the waistline—oh, there's no end to their enchanting variety!

A smart spring coat of suedo, in the Prince of Wales style, slightly fitted, double breasted, with mannish notched collar — $25

Pleats

In Fashion's enticing sketch of pleats, we find novel inverted pleats placed only in front, adding smart fullness to sport frocks of crepe; We find pleats introduced into side panels, which are caught below the hip with embroidered motifs, to hold the straight silhouette.

An attractive ensemble, consisting of long flannel coat in the new Monterey shade and dress combined of pretty printed silk and flannel — $25

Spring 1925

Silhouette

Straight slim lines contrasted with unexpected flares at the hemline, with all the fullness gathered to the front leaving a back that is flat and straight—that is the fashionable silhouette for spring.

Embroideries

Embroideries, vividly Chinese, richly tinselled, or brilliantly gay, enhance the smartness of many a modish satin crepe frock for afternoon, a flat crepe frock for sports or an elaborate ensemble. Spring coats, too, are often colorfully embroidered.

Skirts are short, very short and often uneven in length, being longer in front to accentuate the front fullness.

Sleeves when long are usually tight to the elbow and there varied by flares or peasant puffs with tight cuffs. If short, they're very, very short.

Tunics Again

The new tunics are shorter and often jauntily flared in accordance with Fashion's fondness for the flare. They're found on many smart frocks. Indeed, so voguish are they that certain of the new coats have affected a simulated tunic.

ALL OUT OF SORTS?

So Was This Rushville Woman Who Tells Her Experience

All too often women accept their pains and aches as natural to their sex. They fail to realize that weak kidneys are often to blame for that backache, those headaches, dizzy spells and that tired, depressed feeling. Thousands have found new health and strength by helping the weakened kidneys with Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic. This Rushville case is one of many.

Mrs. Lizzy Borem, 840 W. Ninth St. says: "My back pained so severely it seemed it would break. I had to stop work and go to bed. My kidneys were sluggish, too. I used Doan's Pills from Johnson's Drug Store and several boxes restored my health and rid me of kidney trouble."
